

For those students who are unable to work within the parameters of the education provided by The Nelson Thomlinson School, alternative off site provision is made on rare occasions. This includes the PRU at Carlisle and on occasions an appropriate work placement has been established.

We continue to work with Inspira.

Further details can be obtained from the Pastoral Deputy.