Use of the Disadvantaged Funding

The school has followed guidance provided by EEF as to how the Disadvantaged Funding can be used most effectively to raise achievement and improve progress. All of the activities listed have been used in the past and the majority are in use currently. This will be required at the end of every half-term. The Disadvantaged Funding Lead in school is the Pastoral Deputy, Disadvantaged Funding Governor is Sue Temple and Gill Foster (DSL) oversees CLA.

What we seek to achieve with Disadvantaged Funding

The Nelson Thomlinson School (NTS) uses Disadvantaged Funding with the aim of overcoming the barriers to learning many of these pupils face. Whilst we have focussed on narrowing the attainment gap between pupils in receipt of Disadvantaged Funding and the rest of the cohort, and have exceeded both National and Cumbria thresholds, our attention turns to Progress 8 measures. Reduction of persistent absence of the Disadvantaged Funding group is an area of focus whilst overall disadvantaged pupils achieved attendance of 95.8% in 2015-16; this stood at 95.6% in the last academic year.

The School's Context

NTS is situated some 11 miles from Carlisle. The community is predominantly rural with farming families in attendance at school. Employment opportunities in the locality for many of our parents (within the town) are represented by Innovia Films and this can lead to an inward-looking community with low aspirations. Just under 700 children are bussed into school each day from outlying villages and out-of-catchment areas; of this 700, 74 are in receipt of Disadvantaged Funding and provision is made for these pupils and referenced below. There are less than 3% of the total pupils on roll from ethnic groups in NTS. The School's appearance can mask the issues which are prevalent in Wigton such as the increase in criminal and anti-social behaviour in the town, partly due to the closure of the local police station, the nearest now being some 30 miles away.

In 2015-16 attainment was above the national average for the whole school and disadvantaged pupils. Overall school attendance (95% in 2015-16) is within national parameters. However, persistent absence for disadvantaged pupils exceeds the newly adjusted, national threshold.

In 2015-16, of the 148 pupils with attendance below 90%, 42 were disadvantaged pupils, a reduction of 10 from the previous year. Various interventions were used with these pupils and the current cohort are closely monitored to ensure a narrowing of this gap.

In the last academic year, school attendance was 95.2% and that of the disadvantaged cohort was 95.6%.

In 2016-17 of the 146 pupils with attendance below 90%, 48 were disadvantaged.

FEX figures for NTS are broadly in line with national averages but in 2014-15 the number of FEX issued to Disadvantaged Funding pupils exceeded this threshold; specific circumstances have been attributed to this cohort. Whilst the FEX figures for the whole school remain consistent with previous years, the number of Disadvantaged Funding pupils in receipt of a FEX reduced in 2015-16 (9 of the 62 FEX were Disadvantaged Funding pupils). Of the 74 FEXs in academic year 2016-17, 6 were disadvantaged pupils.

Barriers to Learning for pupils on Disadvantaged Funding

This is based on knowledge of our pupils' backgrounds due to strong pastoral links, liaison with external agencies in the community including Barnardos, Young Carers, Prevent and Deter Community Police, Social Care, Inspira, the School Nurse and baseline assessments in NTS.

The following inward and outward barriers to learning have led to the interventions we have put in place.

1 poor literacy skills, 2 poor parenting, 3 limited access to language, 4 poor attendance, 5 low aspirations, 6 low expectations, 7 narrow experience of life outside school – travel, education, employment opportunities, 8 unemployment in the family, 9 financial pressures, 10 police involvement in the family, 11 lack of extra-curricular opportunities in the town, 12 bereavement, 13 mental health issues in the family, 14 the need for pupils to be Young Carers, 15 lack of familial discourse, 16 issues surrounding parental control out of school, 17 the mono-culture issue in the area, 18 Child Protection issues.

Use of Disadvantaged Funding

The School has used and is using Disadvantaged Funding in a range of ways to tackle the barriers to teaching we feel exist in NTS but also, follow guidance provided by EEF. Of the 18 barriers to learning, as listed above, those identified as being relevant to our intervention strategies are given in brackets in the intervention columns below.

Transition Support Information

Transition from Year 6-7

The Heads of Year 7 and support staff liaise with all 42 feeder schools using a transfer form agreed on by other schools in the CSLC. In addition, NTS enquires about the disadvantaged status of incoming pupils and if the current school believes there is a need for transition support over and above that which the school has in place. Visits are made and all new pupils have the opportunity to speak with the Year 7 staff. Primary school staff are asked a series of questions and invited to share social, emotional and academic information which may ease the transition process.

Supplementary induction sessions have been arranged in the past for disadvantaged pupils and we are happy to continue to offer additional visits/lessons for those pupils in need of this support.

The SENCO works very closely with the primary school and external agencies who may be involved and provides a thorough transition process ensuring the needs of the pupil are fully recognised, views of parents/carers taken into account and all staff briefed as to how these needs will be met in NTS.

Plans are in place to incorporate 'Developing Healthy Minds' into the curriculum. The School Nurse has worked on this with small groups and individuals over the last academic year. She will deliver aspects of this to Year 10 in a forthcoming Citizenship session. The incoming Year 7 will begin the programme in the autumn term and we plan to incorporate this into the Primary Transition Programme over the next year.

Feedback from pupils and parents has been very positive and we will continue to collate their views, taking any comments into account and seeking to improve the transition further.

Transition from Year 9-10

Months of guidance ensue before the options process being, this is with all pupils in the school. Meetings with Form Tutors are lengthy and involve Head of LSD to identify the vulnerable learners who would benefit from and alternative/tailored curriculum. The cohort of those deemed in need of personal guidance have further input from LSD department who meet with parents.

Careers provision (available from the full time IAGO) is involved in Year 9 lessons, assemblies and holds One-to-One appointments with pupils in need of additional guidance.

Deputy Head for Curriculum holds an evening event for parents and extended assembly for Year 9; the focus of this is curriculum and the options process.

All pupils have individual meetings with the Form Tutor.

Once option sheets have been returned and anomalies are followed up by Deputy Head for Curriculum personally with pupils and or parents.

Transition from Year 11-12

The prospectus is disseminated at the turn of the year when the mock results are available. An extended assembly outlines the curriculum offer/study programme and an introduction to Sixth-Form life which involve current students. Subject teachers discuss suitability of applications with individual pupils and Form Teachers hold individual discussions with pupils.

There is involvement from the town's largest employer (as with Year 9).

Careers guidance through assemblies and PSHRE is delivered to all pupils with individual interviews are frequent with unbiased and independent advice regarding Sixth Form, apprenticeships and other training or employment options.

The Sixth-Form team hold individual interviews with prospective students whose educational needs are discussed at length.
